Scholarship recipients

Logan Marshall

Galena, 2015 Scholarship recipient. "Most of my goals are academic, but they do apply to my personal ones as well...I know goals are important no matter how big or small, they give us that want, that need, to go on. They are simply put, important."

Andrew W. Sommer II

Galena/Nulato, 2015 Vocational Scholarship recipient. "I will be able to continue to fulfill my goal of graduating and return to Alaska to pursue employment with my certificate in Instrumentation and Industrial Automation."

Shyanne Saunders

Kaltag, 2019 General Scholarship recipient. "After graduation, I will fulfill my year-long internship at the Korean University. I am interested in translation work or working as a teaching assistant for English classes. I love to help people express themselves and to guide them in making explorations in life and language."

Lillian DeWilde

Koyukuk, 2019 Competitive Scholarship recipient. "My grandma, Madeline Solomon, lived in Galena and devoted her life towards educating children. Earning my Type B Certification for Educational Leadership from the University of Alaska Anchorage will be an achievement two generations in the making. As a learner and teacher, my responsibility is to foster the bridge between our youngest and oldest generations, so that the former may continue down the path of excellence built by those who came before them. It is thanks to many Elder mentors that I can break the trail a little bit wider, so the path may be a little bit easier to tread."
