

INFORMATION FOR GIFTING STOCK

ALASKA NATIVE CLAIMS SETTLEMENT ACT (ANCSA)

The ANCSA Amendments of 1987, allows Gana-A'Yoo, Limited shareholders who own Class A, B, C, and D stock to transfer to a Native or descendent of a Native as a gift while they are living to their child, grandchild, great grandchild, niece or nephew, brother or sister. Relation must be through blood and not simply marriage.

What this means:

You CAN GIFT to:	You CANNOT gift to:
Child	Friends
Grandchild	Spouse
Great Grandchild	Grandparents
Niece or Nephew	Aunts or Uncles
Sister or Brother

Things to Consider:

- Gifting stock is a voluntary transfer by living person to another without payment or other considerations.
- Once the stock is transferred, dividends associated with the transferred shares will belong to the person who received the shares.
- Voting rights associated with any shares you transfer will belong to the person who received the shares, and you will no longer be entitled to vote those shares.
- If you give ALL your shares away, you will no longer be a Gana-A'Yoo, Limited shareholder therefore you will not receive any benefits of being a shareholder.
- Gifting shares is irrevocable. Once you gift stock, you lose all rights to any stock that you gift, and you cannot get the stock back.
- The person receiving the stock has the right to will the stock to anyone he/she may choose. Should that person die without a will, his/her stock would not automatically go back to you. Rather, Gana-A'Yoo is required to distribute the shares to that person's heirs in accordance with the Alaska laws of intestate succession and Gana-A'Yoo, Limited's policies.

This packet contains all the necessary information and forms to start the gifting process. If you wish to initiate an inter vivos of stock, please make sure all required documents are properly completed, executed, and submitted to Gana-A'Yoo, Limited. If any documents are missing, incomplete, or improperly executed, we will be unable to proceed with the transfer and your submittal will be returned to you. Please follow the following steps and instructions on the accompanying forms. If you have any questions or need additional forms, please contact Gana-A'Yoo Shareholder Department at (907) 569-9599 or toll free at (877)-853-4070.
